What is AkLA-A?

AkLA-A is the Anchorage Chapter of the Alaska Library Association, a nonprofit professional organization for the employees, volunteers and advocates at academic, public, school and special libraries of all sizes in Alaska, as well as library products and services vendors.

What does AkLA-A do?

In addition to supporting and promoting the mission of the Alaska Library Association, the Anchorage Chapter provides a venue for the Anchorage library community to meet, interact, develop and exchange ideas relevant to libraries and the library profession.

Should I join?

The Anchorage Chapter extends a welcome to all who are interested in libraries: trustees, board members, library employees, educators and those involved in literacy. Our membership dues are 15 dollars per year. As members you will be informed via email about chapter activities and educational opportunities. We invite you to join us!
